

NO STATEMENT CONTAINED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE A
DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF THE LAW

CAR AND TRAILER LESSONS (CAT B+E) – ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Course Information

There is no theory test required for this course, however you must already hold a CAT B licence (Car licence).

You must have provisional B+E entitlement on your licence.

Test carried out from Craigavon / Belfast or Derry.

Current Test fee is £66.00 (For weekday tests).

2 weeks advanced notice is required for this course.

Group booking rates available on request.

Who needs this course ?

Generally if you have passed your car test on or after the 1st January 1997. You will have to pass a trailer test to be able to tow a trailer over 750 kg, i.e. house box, caravan, cattle trailer. To confirm this check your driving licence to see if you have category B+E dated on your licence, if not, you will need to take a trailer test. The MAM* of the combined vehicle and trailer must not exceed 3,500kg.

What is the trailer test ?

A) Off road manoeuvre

NO STATEMENT CONTAINED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE A
DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF THE LAW

NO STATEMENT CONTAINED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE A
DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF THE LAW

- Reverse exercise
- Re-couple
- Uncouple
- Controlled stop

B) On the road drive

- Be able to move off from the side of the road safely
- Pull in and stop at a safe and convenient place
- Complete an angle start
- Complete a down hill start

THE TEST DURATION LASTS APPROXIMATELY 1HR 15MINS

Course Duration:

- 8 hours car and trailer training
- 2 day course (8 hrs) (4 hrs per day)
- 1 hour lesson and use of vehicle and trailer on test day

*Gross weight when both towing vehicle and trailer are fully loaded.

NO STATEMENT CONTAINED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE A
DEFINITIVE STATEMENT OF THE LAW